

Art Y9 Autumn HT2: Learning Journey

What are we learning about?

Through the theme of 'Naughty But Nice', we are learning how to use our own images to create personal, original outcomes in the form of an acrylic painting. We are also learning about & analysing the work of Contemporary Artist Sarah Graham.

Why are we learning about it?

It is important as developing artists that we learn how to develop our own original sources of inspiration, in this case photographs leading to an Acrylic painting influenced by Sarah Graham.

What new KNOWLEDGE will I gain?

You will gain knowledge in:

- How to fully analyse a piece of art work.
- Properties of & techniques with Acrylic Paint.
- Contemporary Art- Sarah Graham & Photorealism.

TOPIC: Naughty But Nice (Recording/Painting Techniques)

How does this build on the SKILLS I already have?

- You will be building up your repertoire of recording & editing skills.
- You will be further developing your painting techniques.
- Extending the depth of analytical skills from Y7/8 needed for the GCSE Art course next year.

What new SKILLS will I develop?

- Acrylic painting techniques
- Research & analytical skills.

How does this build on the KNOWLEDGE I already have?

- In depth image analysis looking at more of the formal elements of art.
- Experience of Acrylic paint, building on basic application on YR8 Monster Pot .
- Knowledge of Contemporary artists & techniques/genres/periods of art.