

ENGLISH: Year 9 Summer Half Term 1 – Paper 1 Language Skills

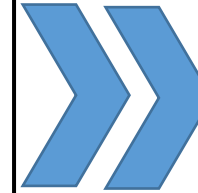

What are we learning about?

In this topic, we will be learning about how writers choose words to express meaning, both explicitly and implicitly. We will also look at how writers combine language and structure choices to create an overall impact in an extract or text.

Why are we learning about it?

It is important to be able to reflect on the messages that writers convey through the choices writers make and the impact they intended to have on their reader.

What new KNOWLEDGE will I gain?

You will extend your range of subject terminology to give you a wider appreciation of the techniques writers use. You will read a wider variety of fiction texts.

How does this build on the SKILLS I already have?

This unit builds on your ability select examples from the text, link them to subject terminology and then explain the impact of the writer's choices across a wide range of texts.

What new SKILLS will I develop?

You will learn to be precise about your choices when answering a question to ensure you are clear and concise.

How does this build on the KNOWLEDGE I already have?

This builds on your knowledge of understanding of how to analyse writers' methods and to give your ideas and opinions about why the writer chose to use specific words and phrases.
