

RAS: Year 9 Autumn Learning Journey 1: Pregnancy & modern struggles for equality

What are we learning about?

We are returning to our 'Keeping Safe' strand by learning about pregnancy, fertility and a woman's choices. Following this, we will start our unit on modern struggles for equality, including anti-racism and the women's movement.

Why are we learning about it?

Pregnancy is a fundamental part of life, along with miscarriage, and it is important to know about options if a pregnancy is unwanted. This pressure to have rights is continued in our study of anti-racism due to the current issues of racism & inequality.

What new KNOWLEDGE will I gain?

- Positive sexual relationships
- Pregnancy and fertility
- Miscarriage
- Women's choices
- Anti-racism
- History of feminism and the women's movement

How does this build on the SKILLS I already have?

You have worked on your ability to express your opinions across many subjects.

You have considered how to have empathy in Year 8 History when you looked at the Civil Rights Movement.

What new SKILLS will I develop?

We will explicitly develop our ability to express our opinion in a polite and courteous manner, demonstrating tolerance of others.

We will develop our ability to consider different perspectives and experiences we may not have had, e.g of racism or sexism.

How does this build on the KNOWLEDGE I already have?

This first unit builds directly on your Year 8 learning about positive sexual relationships by considering the consequences of sex.

We will return to Year 8's learning about racism.
