Information Sessions at SEND Central in collaboration with Parent Carer Forum York

No need to book, just come along.

The next two weeks:

Welfare Rights – knowing what you may be entitled to as a family who have a child with additional needs

Monday 2nd February
1pm – 2pm

A benefits adviser will be available at SEND Central from 1pm. They can share information around the benefits available to families who have children and young people with SEND. Anyone can drop in to make sure you know what you should and could be accessing, and if there is anything you may be missing. Sessions will run as 1-1 for those wanting to understand what they could access and be supported to do so. You can email SEND Central to book a slot. If you prefer to turn up between 1pm–2pm, we will do our best to accommodate you.

How to best support your child with reframing demands when life feels overwhelming

Monday 9th February
1pm–2pm

A workshop for parents and carers of children and young people with SEND, led by colleagues from Danesgate Community around how to best support in de-escalating difficult situations when your child is experiencing distress. This will be focusing on presenting behaviours, what this may be communicating, and thinking about how we can reframe demands to best support your child. No need to book, just come along.

SEND CENTRAL

Think Together Workshops

Throughout February, the Think Together team are running workshops for parents and carers at SEND Central, on Wednesdays, 10am – 11:30am. The next sessions are:
